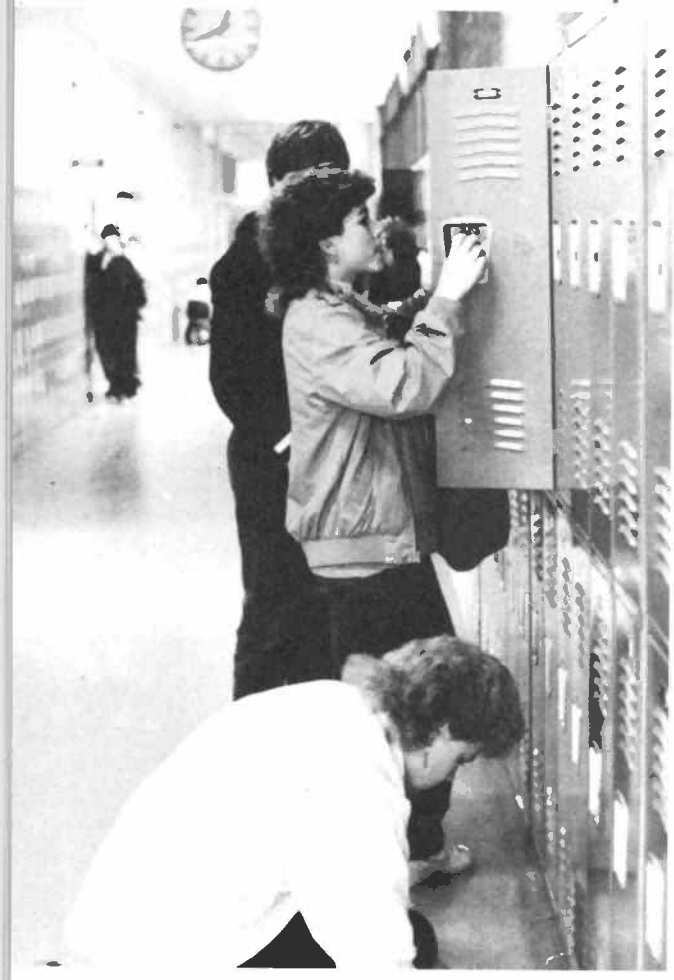
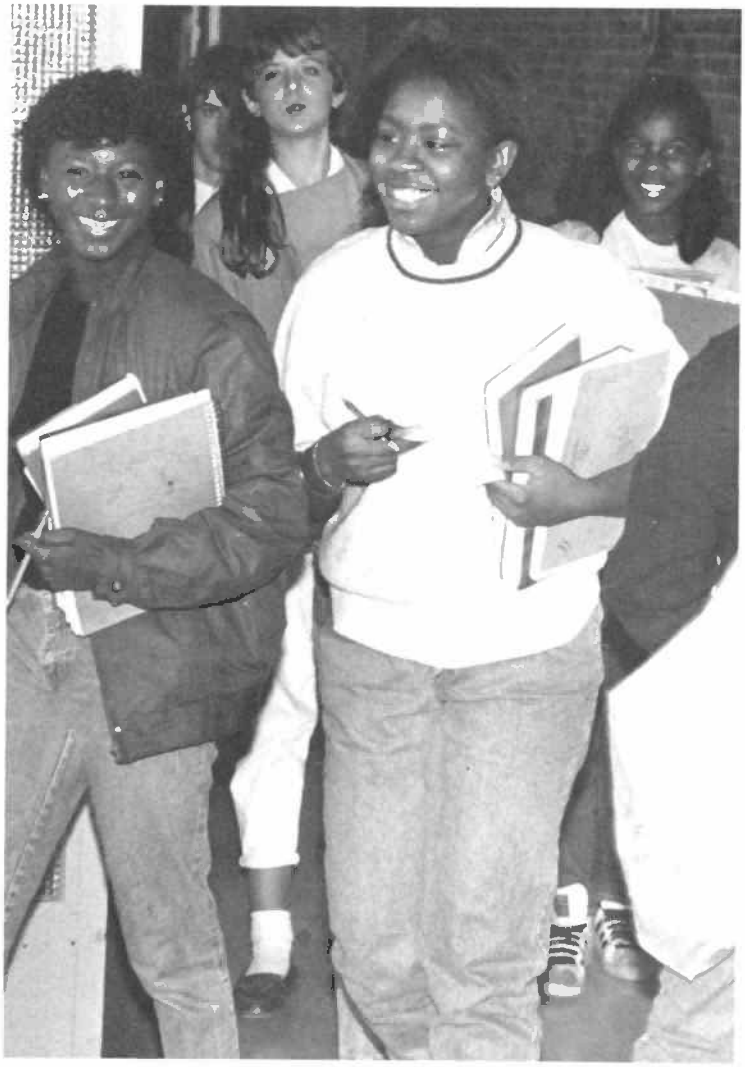
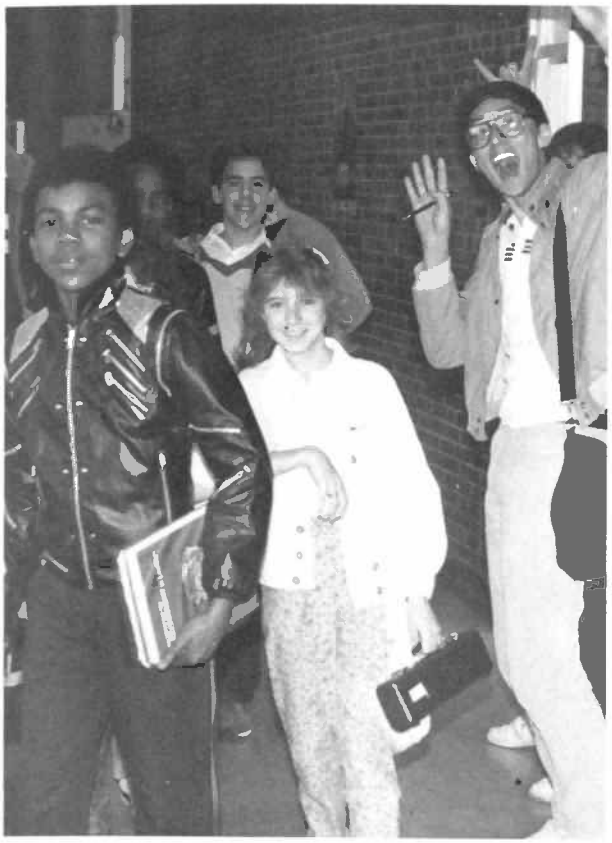
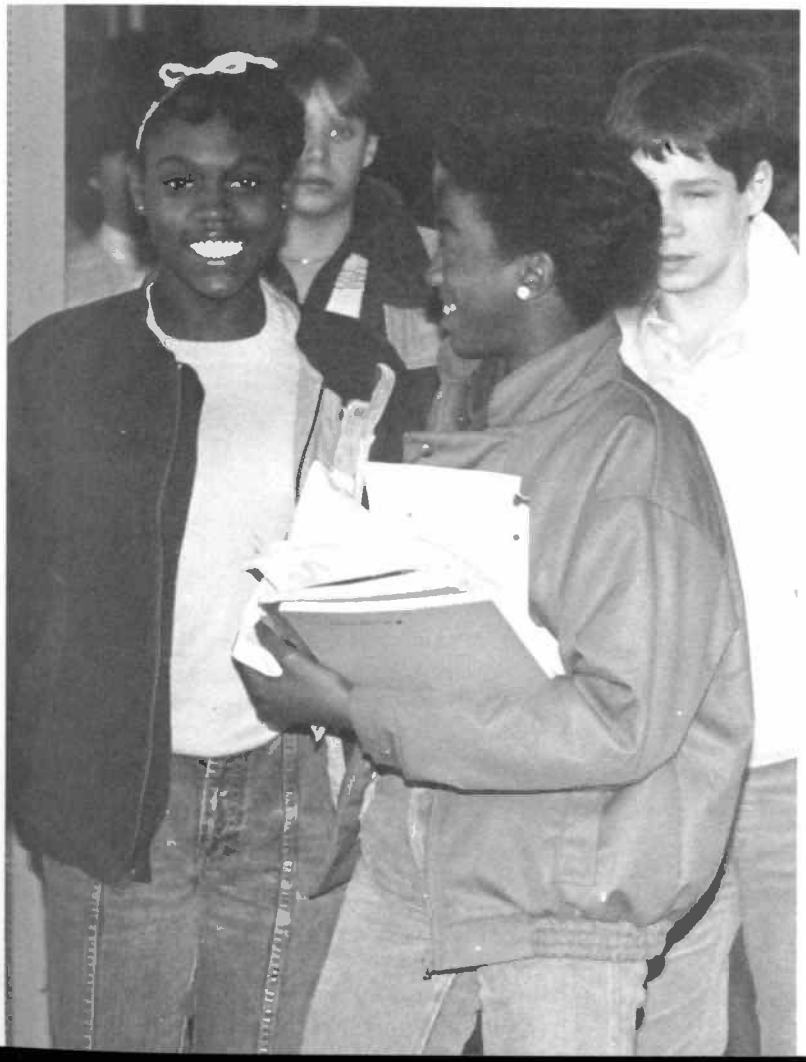
WE MAKE MEMORIES



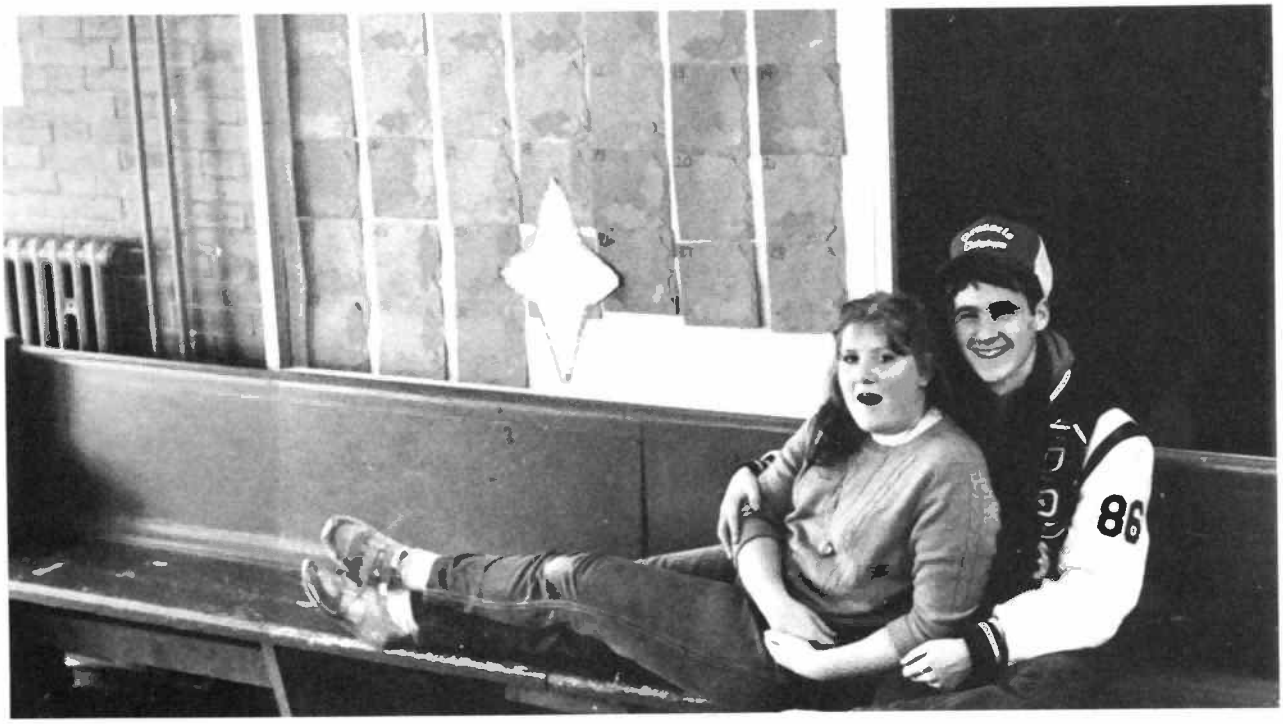




COMING AND GOING,



IN HALLS, BY LOCKERS,



BY FRIENDS WE SEE

EVERY DAY, IN CLASSES —

SOMETIMES WORKING HARD . . .

AND SOMETIMES,

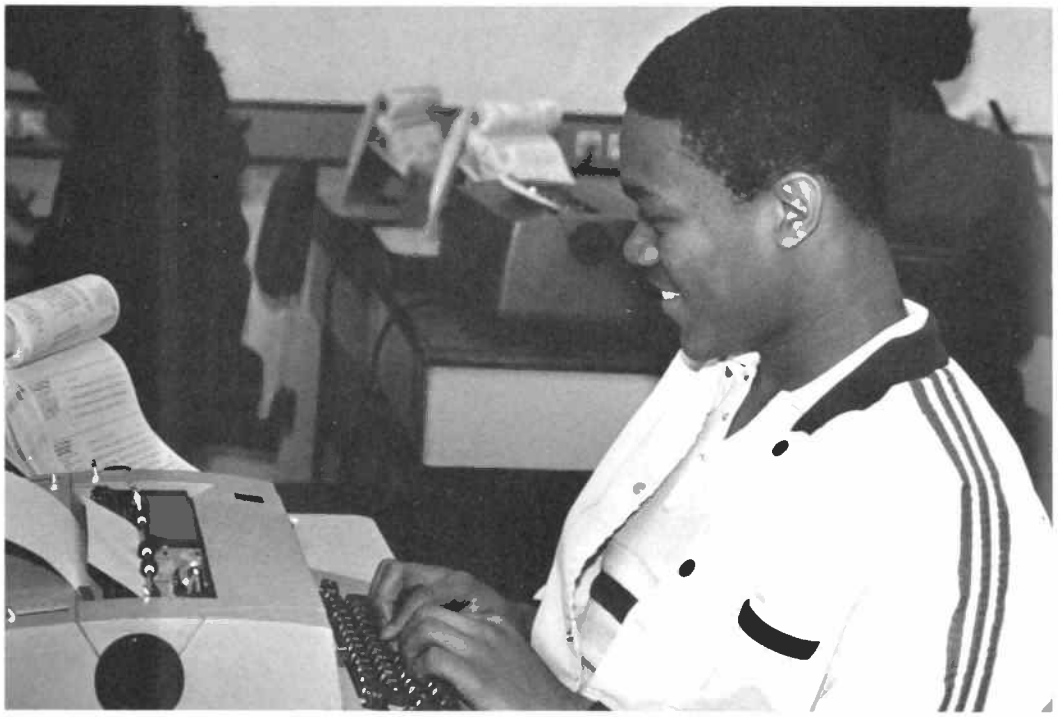
NOT SO HARD . . .

WE REMEMBER PEOPLE AND FACES —

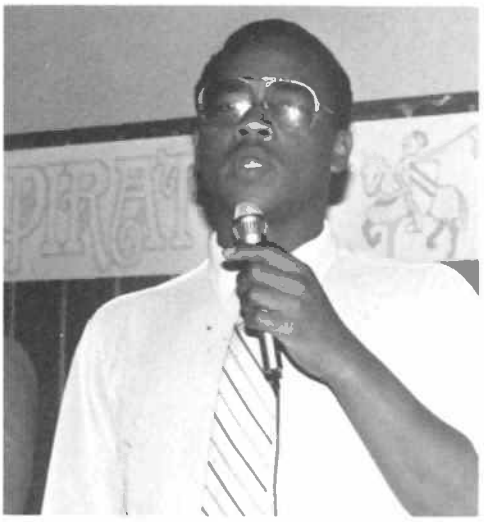
SOMETIMES THOUGHTFUL,

AND SOMETIMES SMILING.

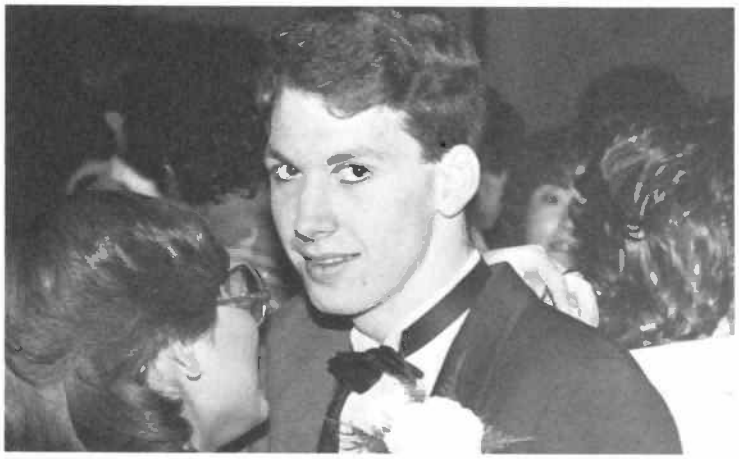
MEMORIES ARE MADE BY DOING,



BEING INVOLVED, AND PARTICIPATING.

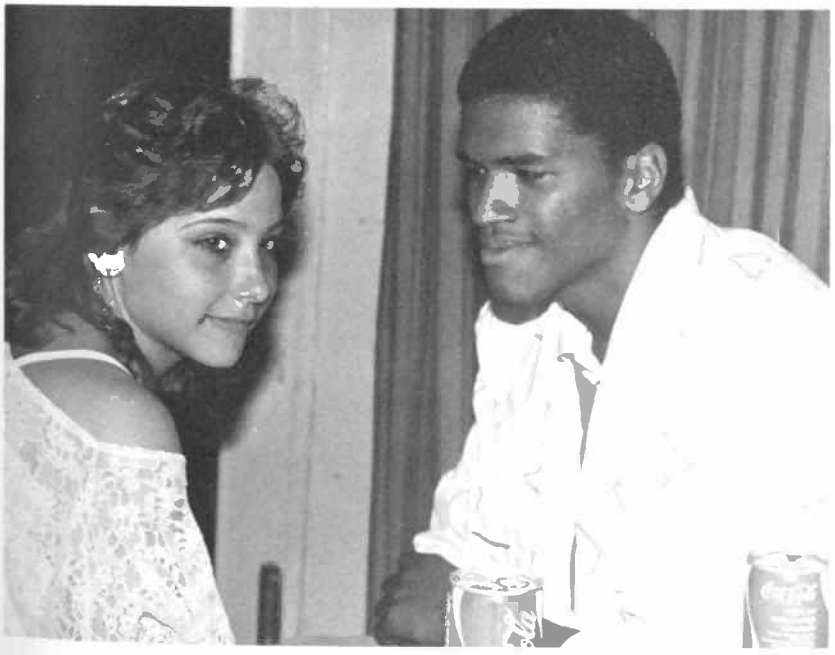


MEMORIES ARE MADE



AS THE KNIGHTS AND THEIR LADIES

DANCE THE NIGHT AWAY.



MEMORIES ARE MADE DAY TO DAY

SO THAT
ON SOME OTHER DAY,

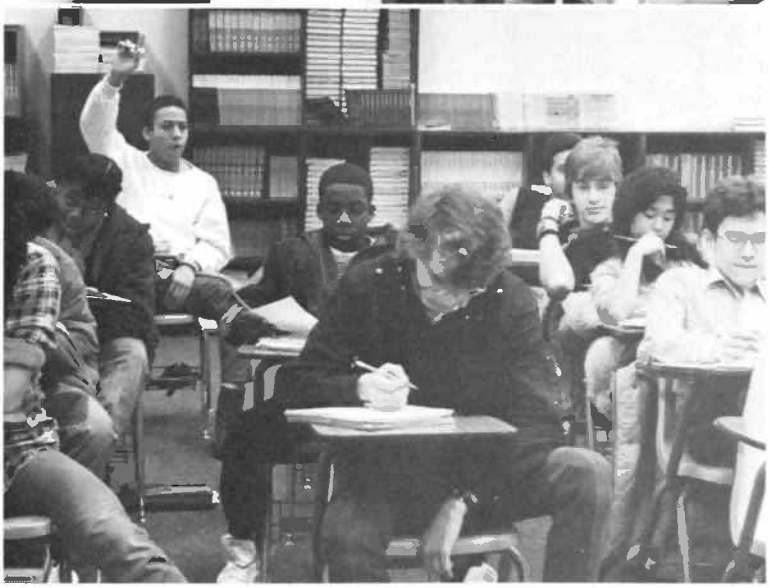
LOOKING BACK AT THIS YEAR AT KAHS,

WE CAN REMEMBER.



DO YOU

. . . Tonya Mathis and proud dad at JNHS induction?

. . . the "unusual" Student Council election speech?

. . . the Christmas Dance?

REMEMBER . . .?

. . . that very foxy "lady" who appeared Spirit Week?

. . . Mr. Mara presenting Etta Olivo and Kathy Lenz awards as winners of the "What My Education Means To Me" Essay Contest?

. . . the tantalizing cheerleaders for the Geriat Giants?

THE FACES OF SPIRIT WEEK!

HOMECOMING 1985

Senior Princess Peggy Watkins and Prince Richard Liles

Homecoming Queen Rhonda Hood and King Earl Banks

Junior Princess Sandra Keelin and Prince Freddy Kiger

Sophomore Prince Lenny Lesure and Princess Sandra Collins

The week of October 19, 1985 was KAHS's Homecoming. The week started off with Spirit Week. The Spirit Stick, which represents the best and most spirited class participation, was awarded to the Freshmen.

Friday, a Powder Puff football game and bonfire were held to get everyone fired up for the next day's events. Homecoming day began with a parade. Three floats were awarded prizes: Third Place was given to the Eighth Grade, Second Place to the Freshmen, and First Prize was awarded to the Sophomore Class. During halftime the Homecoming Court was announced and crowned. A dance was held at the Fidelitas Club that night.

Monthly field trips to places of interest such as the Schloss Museum are an important part of the program.

Members (l. to r.): Shoreice Harell, Melinda Freeman, Mr. McMahon, Michele McKinney and Jason King.

National Honor Society is an elite club in which students have to have at least a 3.5 cumulative grade point average; they are also selected for qualities of Scholarship, Service, Leadership and Character. *Pictured above is the NHS Chapter at KAHS (l. to r., front to back) Peggy Watkins, Patrick O'Leary, Scott Mitchell, Amy Gitchell, Etta Olivo and Angela Forster. N.H.S./N.J.H.S.

Induction of the newly organized Junior National Honor Society was held at the Chapel on December 11, 1985. The Senior Chapter of Karlsruhe National Honor Society conducted the program. The history of NHS was presented with the emphasis on the fact that the two clubs are separate. A welcome to the honorary guests was given by the NHS president after which the formal ceremony began. Candles were lighted that represented Character, Scholarship, Service and Scholarship. The fourteen members were chosen by a faculty NHS Board.

J.R.O.T.C.

Karlsruhe American High School adopted a J.R.O.T.C. program this year. The program is successful and has lots of participation. Throughout the year, students wear uniforms on Thursdays, learn Army regulations, customs and traditions. They also learn drills and shooting. Some of the J.R.O.T.C. members participate in extra-curricular activities such as Drill Team, Rifle Team and Color Guard.

A HIT!

The play GREATER TUNA is named for the fictional 3rd smallest town in Texas. The play is a tongue-in-cheek look at the fun, tragedy, prejudices and mores of small-town life. All types of people are represented and this slice of "Americana" shows how much fun and how absurd people can really be at times.

There were three all conference players from Karlsruhe this year. They were the following: Jens Gainey (Center — Offense), Paul Eubanks (Running Back — Offense), and Johnny Lane (Nose Guard — Defense). This year's captains were Earl Banks, John Williams, Karl Feuge, and Brett Mills.

A spectacular set!

The Lady Knights Varsity Volleyball season was a very good one with a season's end record of 8-2. They placed 4th in the Silver A Tournament Division, and were the only team from Silver A to win two mate matches out of four.

KNIGHT'S TEAM TOWARDS TOP IN TENNIS

The Karlsruhe Tennis Team, coached by George Alcott had a successful season this year. Six KAHS students were chosen to represent Karlsruhe in the Tennis Championships in Wiesbaden. They included: Kenny Starr (men's singles), Jason Thompson and Tom Hapgood (men's doubles), Joni Arnold (women's singles), Etta Olivo and Angela Forster (women's doubles).

Unlike previous years, tennis was a fall sport rather than spring. Coach Alcott is hoping for an even more successful season next year.
